NOTE:

- 1 The post of Asst. General Manager is Group A Senior Scale Post. Hence, no reservation in promotion would apply
- 2 There have been excessive promotions amounting to 8 encroaching DR and as such the candidate at Sl. 48-55 do not deserve any further promotions unless otherwise a short fall of 8 posts in the DR quota is made good. The excess utilised 8 posts in PR category is subsequently setoff against retired employees, who enter the A.G.M category by promotion. Further, it may be noted that as per the present C&R Rules the ratio for DR & PR is 40 : 60. Accordingly, out of the cadre strength of 14, 6 posts earmarked for DR, have not been utilised.

Note:

1. There have been excessive promotions amounting to 8 encroaching DR and as such the candidate at Sl. 48-55 do not deserve any further promotions unless otherwise a short fall of 8 posts in the DR quota is made good. The excess utilised 8 posts in PR category is subsequently set off against retired employees, who entered the A.G.M category by promotion.
2. The post of Asst. General Manager is Group A Senior Scale Post. Hence, no reservation in promotion would apply

This is a promotional post to be filled purely by promotion (100% PR) - the qualifying cadres for promotion to AM Cadre are Sr. Typist, Sr. Steno, & Sr. Asst., all in (SG). The promotional vacancies are not identified for being allocated to the respective feeding cadres, as no mention about the ratios among the feeding cadres for the purpose of promotion is available. Under these circumstances, it is felt justifiable to consider the length of service in the respective feeding cadres as the basis of eligibility.
- 3 Since the promotion is to the cadre of AM, the representation of SC / ST in the cadre of AM takes over the priority and as such 1 to 33 ratio in respect of AM is considered for promotion.

NOTE:

1. The recruitments made do not comply to the roster requirements as per G.O, bearing No. DPAR 28 SBC 79 dated 25.9.1979. Hence, it is desirable to undertake the roster balancing exercise to identify the future vacancies, roster point wise and adopt the same for future recruitments.
2. The incumbents are required to be allotted to local and residual parent cadres which are considered to be separate units for the purpose of appointment/recruitment/promotion/seniority/operation of the roster points, in the direction of implementation of Article 371(j).

NOTE:

1. The recruitments made do not comply to the roster requirements as per G.O, bearing No. DPAR 28 SBC 79 dated 25.9.1979. Hence, it is desirable to undertake the roster balancing exercise to identify the future vacancies roster point wise and adopt the same for future recruitments.
2. The incumbents are required to be allotted to local and residual parent cadres which are considered to be separate units for the purpose of appointment/recruitment/promotion/seniority/operation of the roster points, in the direction of implementation of Article 371(j).
3. There is one back-log of SC which is to be made good during next promotion, subject to availability of vacancy / candidate.

NOTE:

- 1 The recruitments made do not comply to the roster requirements as per G.O, bearing No. DPAR 28 SBC 79 dated 25.9.1979. Hence, it is desirable to undertake the roster balancing exercise to identify the future vacancies, roster point wise and adopt the same for future recruitments.
- 2 The incumbents are required to be allotted to local and residual parent cadres which are considered to be separate units for the purpose of appointment/recruitment/promotion/seniority/operation of the roster points, in the direction of implementation of Article 371(j).

NOTE:

- The recruitments made do not comply to the roster requirements as per G.O, bearing No. DPAR 28 SBC 79 dated 25.9.1979. Hence, it is desirable to undertake the roster balancing exercise to identify the future vacancies roster point wise and adopt the same for future recruitments.
- The incumbents are required to be allotted to local and residual parent cadres which are considered to be separate units for the purpose of appointment/recruitment/promotion/seniority/operation of the roster points, in the direction of implementation of Article 371(j).

| Roster register not maintained. Filling up the posts is not as per the roster regulations revised from time to time. There is a need to balance the roster, to arrive at the missing Rosters, after cadre bifurcation and allotment as per Article 371(J), so as to enable to fill up the future vacancies only with the missing roster points to begin with and operation of the roster subsequently. |                        |         |          |               |                                          |                     |                                                                                                        |         |

Note:

1. The incumbents are required to be allotted to local and residual parent cadres which are considered to be separate units for the purpose of appointment / recruitment / promotion / seniority / operation of the roster points, in the direction of implementation of Article 371(j).
2. The recruitments do not comply to the roster requirements as per G.O, bearing No. DPAR 28 SBC 79 dated 25.9.1979. Hence, it is desirable to undertake the roster balancing exercise to identify the future vacancies roster point wise and adopt the same for future recruitments.

Note:

1. The incumbents are required to be allotted to local and residual parent cadres which are considered to be two separate units for the purpose of appointment/recruitment/promotion/seniority/operation of the roster points, in the direction of implementation of Article 371(j).
2. The recruitments made either to do not comply to the roster requirements as per G.O, bearing No. DPAR 28 SBC 79 dated 25.9.1979. Hence, it is desirable to undertake the roster balancing exercise to identify the future vacancies, roster point wise and adopt the same for future recruitments.
